Derm Summit conference app:

Don't forget to download the vFairs app in the App Store or Google Play! We've prepared a guide on how to navigate the app and make the best of your 1:1 networking opportunities.

Each attendee will have their unique QR code on their name badge. Scanning QR codes using the conference app will allow attendees to exchange contact information.

1:1 meeting scheduling will also be available within the app.

San Francisco weather:

The average temperature in January is in the mid- to upper-50s, with lows in the 40s. With foggy and cool mornings and possible light rain, dressing in layers is recommended.

Health & safety information:

Wearing masks is strongly encouraged, but is not required, at the conference. These links have information on COVID-19, Flu, and RSV.
